Social Events of the Week in Indianapolis

Club Programmes and Miscellaneous Social Affairs @ @

Santana and the sand

Social Calendar for the Week.

-Monday .-Miss Margaret Shover, dinner for Miss Senior class of Shortridge High School dance at Brenneke's Academy. Mrs. Hilton U. Brown, reception for Pi Beta Phi Society.

-Tuesday .-Mrs. Alexander Stewart, tea for Mrs. Clarence Winter, of New York. Mrs. U. P. Craig, luncheon in honor Mrs. Zook, of Plainfield, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Russell, bridal dinner for Miss Russell and Mr. Lilly. nnual outing of the Century Club. Musicale recital at Propylaeum by Mr. Terence Holliday.

Miss Faith Kern, evening company. Proctor Club, outing at Broad Ripple. Mr. and Mrs. J. Dorsey-Forrest, reception for Mr. and Mrs. Omar Wilson.

Miss Ola Smith, pupils' recital at home of Mrs. Charles E. Coffin. -Wednesday .-

Garden fete at home of Mrs. William H. Coleman, given by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Marriage of Miss Florence Russell and Mr. William Lilly. Mrs. May Wright Sewall, tea for resident Miss Flora Ketcham, tea for Miss Mary Marriage of Miss Marie Keilholtz and Mr. Eugene Pfafflin.

Miss Leonora Ensey, morning party for Marriage of Miss Mary Edith Harris and Mr. William B. Campbell. -Thursday .-Mrs. Earl M. Ogle, luncheon for Mrs.

Cobb, of Kankakee, Misses Spann, high tea for Miss Mary Miss Leonora Ensey, morning party for Miss Braman. Mrs. Oscar Mauer, bridal company for Miss Mayme Smith. -Friday .-Flower Mission children's party at the ome of Mrs. John T. Brush.

Mrs. Hugh Langdon, tea for Miss Mary Mrs. Frederick T. Ross, company for Mrs. Piercey. Miss Ola Smith, pupils' recital at the Charles L. Comin -Saturday .-

Mrs. Henry Lane Wallace, tea for Miss Miss Irene Reed, picnic at Broad Ripple

Social Events of the Past Week. Miss Elizabeth Ray entertained a few latives Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Frank R. Jelleff, of Providence, R. I.

XXX The Hoyle Euchre Club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Edward Jones on North Capitol avenue. The prizes were won Mrs. William Lewis, Miss Ruth Davis, drs. Bryan Canfield and Mrs. A. P. Herron.

xxx Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Moffett, of College evenue, entertained at dinner last Tuesday evening for Miss Marie Keilholz and Mr. ugene Pfafflin, who will be married June 0. Covers were laid for twelve, and the appointments were in green and white.

Miss Etta M. Knox and Mr. Louis J Keck, formerly of this city, but now of New York, were married at Christ Church dnesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Richard Wells, of Chicago, was best man and Mrs. Keck left immediately for New York city, where they will live.

Miss Helen F. Watson gave a small comcany Tuesday afternoon in honor of her tor, Miss Lucy Crafts, of New York liss Crafts sailed yesterday for a visit broad, and the tea table was decorated with a ship of flowers, with miniature boats for favors, symbolic of the anticipated x x x Miss Fredonia Allen entertained the mior class of Tudor Hall at dinner last Puesday evening. The table decoration and intments were in gold and white, the colors. The guests were Misses Gladys Finney, Lena Cunningham, Annabel Gilrist, Joy Davis, Mary King and Edith

A delightful birthday party was given last Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Towdery, at their country home, northwest of the city, in honor of the eighteenth birthday of daughter Mae. The house was beautifully decorated and about one hundred guests were entertained. The evening was ent in dancing and games.

The marriage of Miss Ethyl Irene Waton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Waton, and Mr. Claude W. Slider took place ast Wednesday evening at the home of bride's parents. The attendants were as Alma Schmitt, maid of honor; Miss trice Reiger, bridesmaid; Mr. George Allen and Mr. Grover Slider, groomsmen.

Mrs. Merle N. A. Walker entertained at cheon Wednesday in honor of her visiors, Miss Ada Hayes and Miss Harbaugh, of Attica. The table was prettily decorated tale, Mrs. R. C. Buchanan and Miss XXX

Miss Ethel Pavens was the hostess for high tea Friday afternoon, entertaining about thirty friends for her visitors, Miss Gardenshire and Miss Key, of Chatanooga, Tenn. The guests were seated in the dinng room, where the decorations consisted ms and ferns, with clusters of pink earnations. Miss Havens was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Elisha Havens, Mrs. Edward J. Kenney, of Woodruff Place, gave a small company Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Maurice Zook, of Mrs. Horace J. Eddy. Among the out-ofwere Mrs. Curtis, of Noblesville, with Mrs. Campbell; Miss Wild, of Noblesville, with irs. Wild, and Miss Thompson, of Chicago, with Miss Clune.

Mr. Corwin P. Sells, of this city, and diss Charlotte Anne Deahl were married Wednesday morning by the Rev. D. R. ucas, at their home, No. 1901 Talbott aven the family of Mr. Sells the ceremony

"AUNTIES"

They Belong to the Whole Neighbor-

That dear old neighbor we knew as "Aunty," and who lived down the street, was no relation of course, except that her tender old heart made her "Aunty" to all public schools for years my health became and I suffered frequently from indiges-After my marriage I had indigestion dly it became chronic. Owing to my adition my little baby did not get proper ent and was a very delicate child. had about decided to put her on artificial od altogether when the advice of dear old Aunty' put baby and I on the right road. isisted upon my trying Grape-Nuts d, declaring that it would help me and ive baby more nourishment, so to please did trying it for breakfast. The rewas so marked and so quick that I ate for luncheon too and I must say the ge has been wonderful. I have good h now and baby is a strong active

"My mother says that Grape-Nuts helps more and keeps her more cheerful and than anything else she has ever taka. Truly pure scientific food has great Name given by Postum Co., Battle was very simple and pronounced in the presence of the family and nearest rela- | Sewall she presented the tray to the guest

Thursday the juniors of the Kindergarten Training School entertained the members of Ripple, on the steamer Sunshine. The luncheon toasts were bright and clever, and were "The Locker Room at 4:30," by Miss Riggs; "The Normal Prophecy," by Miss Schooley; "The Normal Quotations," by Miss Case; "School Quotations," by Miss Eldridge.

Mrs. S. H. Socwell was the hostess for a card company Wednesday afternoon, entertaining about forty friends at her home on North Alabama street. She was assisted in her hospitalities by her daughter, Miss Edith Socwell, and a group of friends, The several rooms were attractive with decorations of honeysuckle and syringa blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Socwell gave a second card party Thursday evening.

Miss Myrtle Harvie entertained with a luncheon at Broad Ripple, Monday, in honor of Miss Florence Russell and her bridesmaids. The table was attractively adorned with garden flowers, and the name cards were in heart shape. The guests, with Miss Russell, were Miss Margaret Shover, Miss Morey of New York, Miss Miss Ida Turrell and Miss Louise Lilly.

The G. G. G. Club of Shortridge High School gave an enjoyable progressive supper and hay ride. Friday evening, which was chaperoned by Miss Mabel Pasquier and Miss Auretta Williams. The party included Misses Helen Spain, Clara Lan-caster, Helen Pasquier, Winnifred Ken-nedy, Vera Jacobs, Jessie Ragsdale, Edith Keegan, Thetis Frederick, and Ryland Pratt, Carl Clemmer, Sherley Hendricks, Norman Berry, James Calderhead, Ray Fox, Neil Horner, Carl Brown, Dean Bonnett and Herbert Whiteman.

An informal company was given Thurs-An informal company was given Thurs- line of study and these pictures were auc- cana" for the ceremony, which was read day afternoon by Mrs. Frank Walker Mor- tioned off after the luncheon. At the by the Rev. M. L. Haines. The bride was rison in honor of Miss Ada Hayes and Miss Harbaugh, of Attica, who are visiting Mrs. were entertained with games, and the several rooms were prettliy decorated with vases of flowers. With the guests of honor Mrs. Morrison entertained Mrs. R. T. Buchanan, Mrs. Orrin Walker, Mrs. Zena Galloway, Mrs. Homer Wiegand, Mrs. J. W. Baker, Miss Elise Allen and Miss Anna De Mrs. Joseph R. Smith.

The Ladies' Literary Union observed a guest meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ella Billings. Assisting in the entertainment were Mrs. Latty, Mrs. Alexander Booz, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Stout and Mrs. Criswold. The rooms were decorated with palms and flowers. A harpist played and a poem, covering the events of the club year, which was written by Mrs. Carrie Bradford, read. Mrs. Engle read an original story that afforded much amusement. The members of the club presented Mrs. Addie Frank a picture.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Hereth gave a small informal dance last Tuesday evening at their home on North New Jersey street. in honor of their guest, their sister, Miss Gertrude Wanner, of Goshen. The house was decorated with green and the dining room had a pretty basket of ferns with white candles. The guests entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hereth were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Herron, Miss Elizabeth Cooper, Miss Georgia McDermott, Miss Eliza Chambers, Mr. Arthur Smith, Mr. Frederick Weimer, Mr. Oliver Hereth and Mr. Frank Warman.

A pretty luncheon was given Monday by Miss Louise Young, in honor of Miss Marie Hines, whose marriage to Mr. Charles G. Konter occurred Friday. The table was set in pink, white and green, with a cluster of pink and white roses set in maiden hair ferns for the center. For the guests' favors were bon-bon boxes, with the bride's picture done in water colors on the cover. With Miss Hines, Miss Young entertained Miss Edna Stevenson, Miss Clara Hawkins, Miss Ruth Maxwell, Miss Elizabeth Fletcher, Miss Bertha Parker and Miss Mary Foster of Crawfordsville.

Mrs. Harry C. Bauer gave a linen shower Thursday afternoon, entertaining in honor of Miss Mayme Smith, who will be married next week to Mr. George Bauer. Clusters of marguerites formed the decoration of the parlors. Mrs Bauer was assisted in her hospitalities by Miss Julia Shepherd and Miss Rose Bauer. Thursday evening Mr. an. Mrs. Bauer entertained at dinner, at which the guests were Miss Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Maurer, Mrs. Henry Smith, Miss Anna and Miss Ella Smith, Miss Julia Shepherd, Miss Rose Bauer, Miss May Wilson and Mr. George Bauer.

A pretty dance was given last Monday in the gymnasium at Tudor Hall, for which with pink carnations, and the company in-cluded Miss Hayes, Miss Harbaugh, Mrs. hostesses with Miss Allen. The young of Terre Haute and Miss Helen Cook of the members of the senior class were the Frank Walker Morrison, Mrs. Charles S. | women of the class are Miss May Cummins | Greenfield. Baker, Miss Eva Banfield, Miss Alice Louise Brown, Miss Gertrude Zumpfe, Miss Florence Marie Hess, Miss Alice Maude Hill, Miss Lila Frew Kurtz, Miss Jessie Stake and Miss Grace Burns Loomis a large number of the parents and the friends of the girls of the class were entertained. The guests were received in the parlors of the residence and the supper was served in the primary room.

A pretty wedding of Wednesday afternoon was that of Miss Ella D. Hadley and Emmett Hicks, of Tallahoma, Tenn., at officiated, and Mrs. John Wineland played own visitors entertained with the guests the wedding march. The decorations were in green and white, and the wedding gown was of white grenadine. The only attendant was Grace Ballard, as a flower girl. Among the guests was Levi P. Ballard, of Mooresville. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks have gone to their home in Tallahoma.

> K X X Miss Florence Russell, who will be married next Wednesday to Mr. William Lilly, entertained her bridesmaids' and sistants at a beautiful luncheon Wednesday at the Columbia Club. Sweet peas formed the floral decoration of the table and in the center was a broad, low basket of the flowers with smaller baskets at the guests' places. The guests were Mrs. H. A. Russell, the bride-elect's mother; Mrs. Charles Lilly, mother of the bridegroomelect; Miss Morley of New York, Miss Ida Turrell, Miss Elizabeth Lewis, Miss Myrtle Harvie, Miss Blanche Carroll, Miss Grace Riebel, Miss Margaret Shover, Miss Louise Lilly and Miss Marie Karzenbach.

The marriage of Miss Dolla Sigmon, march. The bride wore a dainty gown of white china silk trimmed with medallions. and carried a cluster of sweet peas. The rooms were decorated with flowers and ferns and the favors for the guests were small silver bells tied with white satin rib-Mr. and Mrs. Burrows have gone South on a wedding trip and "ill be at home at 334 Douglass street, after July 1. One of the delightful entertainments of the commencement week of the Girls' Sewall. The guests were received by Mrs. Sewall with the executive committee of the association, Mrs. James McIntosh Judson, Miss Julia Landers, Miss Melle Colgan and Miss Clara Hawkins. A pretty feature of the entertainment was the presentation of an exquisite silver tea service to Mrs. cousekeeper who reads the little Scwall. The service was placed on a silver cook in each package of Grape-Nuts tray and completely concealed by an im-

Mrs. Judson concluded her toast to Mrs.

Miss Jane Alexander, daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Alexander, and Mr. Harry Louis Likert were married at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother on Ruckle street. The Rev. D. H. Murphy, of Greensburg, an uncle of the witnessed by the immediate relatives only. The only attendant was a little flower girl, Jean Coffin, of Irvington. Mrs. William comingly gowned in a green tailor suit and carried a cluster of June lilies. The house was prettily decorated in pink peonies. Mr. and Mrs. Likert left for a trip to Califorat home after Aug. 1.

Miss Josephine Hyde entertained about thirty of the friends of Miss Mary Noble informally Tuesday afternoon in her honor. During the afternoon several musical numbers were given by Ellis Levy on Marie Katzenbach, Miss Elizabeth Lewis, Hyde was assisted in entertaining her Hines of New York and Mr. Jesse Fletcher.

Miss Ida Turrell and Miss Louise Lilly. guests by her mother, Mrs. Laura Hyde, and by Mrs. Ritzinger, Mrs. William Haulesen, Mrs. Thomas Dean, Miss Anna and Miss Louise Spann and Miss Annie tily decorated with flowers, the drawing room being adorned with pink peonies and the library with vases of fleur de lis.

The members of the Study Club were entertained at luncheon Wednesday by Mrs. Samuel Elliott Perkins. The club has met devoted its time to the study of Rome. At American Beauty roses forming the backvines and sweet pea blossoms, were bonbon boxes filled with beans, which were used Merle N. A. Walker, and of Miss Hawkins, | to buy the pictures. Mrs. Perkins enterwho is with Mrs. Orrin Walker. The guests | tained Mrs. H. B. Heywood, Mrs. J. V. Alice Dowden, Mrs. James M. Judson, Mrs. J. J. Price and Mrs. A. L. Lockridge. Other members of the class are Mrs. Louis Wolff, Mrs. T. A. Winterrowd, Miss Mullen and

> Tuesday evening Miss Elizabeth Lewis was the hostess for a pretty company at her home, on North Pennsylvania street, entertaining in honor of Miss Florence Russell and Mr. William Lilly, who will be married this month. The guests were entertained at cards, and the games were followed by a kitchen shower for the bride-The rooms were attractively trimmed in pink, the wedding color, and the scheme was carried out by the use of carnations and pink peonies. Miss Lewis was assisted in her hospitalities by her mother, Mrs. Mrs. Benjamin Lewis and Mrs. Birch. The company included Miss Russell Miss Louise Lilly, Miss Blanche Carroll Miss Ida Turrell, Miss Myrtle Harvie, Miss Margaret Shover, Miss Hutton, Miss Lento Fulwell, Miss Helen Morey of New York, and Messrs. Lilly, Hayes, Helm, Krauss, Birch, Love, Burgess and Spencer.

> Mrs. G. M. Henderson and Mrs. J. B. Sidener were the hostesses for a large reception Thursday afternoon at their home on Broadway. The color tone of pink was carried out in the decoration of the house, and pink roses, carnations and peonies were used in profusion. The guests were served at small tables in the dining room, where the decoration was entirely of pink sweet peas. Assisting the hostesses in entertaining their guests were Mrs. H. T. Conde W. C. Helt, Mrs. Homer Hadley, Mrs. M. F. Holt, Mrs. Granville Allen, Mrs. Walter Howe, Mrs. W. S. Moffett, Mrs. Merle Sidener, Mrs. W. B. Nash, Miss Eloise Palmer, Miss Verna Palmer, Miss Lillian Moore, Miss Grace White, Miss Maude Prier, Miss Alta Roberts and Miss Bertha Crosley. The receiving hours were from 3 to 6, and a large number of out-of-town visitors were present with the callers.

Miss Florence Russell, the bride-elect, and her visitor, Miss Helen Morey, of New York, were the guests of honor at a pretty company which was given Thursday afternoon by Miss Grace Riebel at her home on Broadway. Cards furnished the entertainment of the afternoon, and the score cards were red hearts. Pink sweet peas and daisies formed the floral decoration of the rooms. With the guests of honor Miss Riebel entertained the bridesmaids and assistants for the wedding and a few other friends, the number including Mrs. James Morrell Davis, Mrs. Edwin Maurice Craft. Miss Louise Lilly, Miss Elizabeth Lewis, Miss Myrtle Harvie, Miss Margaret Shover, Blanche Carroll, Miss Lucy Hardy, Nita Richards, Miss Helen Spring-Miss Jessie Cleveland, Miss Harriet Bugbee, Miss Edna Stevenson, Miss Stella Fox, Miss Mary Searle, Mrs. Hugh Brown Cutter of Louisville, Miss Charlotte Dahlen

Miss Charity Dye's Browning class was entertained by her Monday afternoon with programme was prepared for the afternoon. which included two Browning songs, "My Star" and "Apparitions," by Miss Fremont Swain. Mr. Fritz Krull sang "King Charles," with his own musical setting of the epilogue written for the Browning so-Mrs. W. Flanner read "In a Gonwith the song, "I Send My Herat Up o Thee," and "Nocturne," Chopin, Opus 32 No. 1, and "Legend," Wieniawski. Following the programme there was a social hour. The members of the class present were Mrs. Wentz, Mrs. Yeaton, Mrs. Shover, Mrs. Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Schofield, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Holton, Mrs. Hellixon, Mrs. Haywood, Mrs. Hobbs, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Lulu Brown, Mrs. Hawley, Miss Arnold and Miss Buckley. There were

Mrs. Frank Maus Fauvre entertained the members of the German Literary Club Monday, and took them to Spring Lake Park cently, were given by the delegates, Mrs. Test and Mrs. Barnes. The name cards were picture postals of scenes in the Black forest, brought from abroad by Fauvre, and legends of the Black forest were told by the guests during the course of the dinner. The company included Mesdames Henry Adams, Theodore Barnes, Fauvre, H. O. Pantzer, Ferdinandine Reese, Frederick Rush, Margaret Segur, Henry Severin, Alexander Stewart, Bertha Test. Bernhard Vonnegut, Clemens Vonnegut, Theodore Wagner, Charles M. Walker, Weigeldt, Emil Wulschner, Frederick Francke, William Haerle, Philip Hildebrand, Louis Hollweg, C. Howe, James H. Parkhurst, Julius Karrman and the Misses Emilie Kipp, Paula Kipp and Emily Fletcher.

The Propylaeum was the scene of a beautiful party last Tuesday evening, the occasion being the annual hop given by the senior class of the Girls' Classical School. two hundred invitations had been attendance of the friends and patrons of the school. The guests were received by Mrs. Sewall and the class, which includes the Misses Carrie Belle Widner, Una Stubbins Harriet Sawyer, Irma Louise Manegold, Spears Lyman, Kate Callaway, Au-Marie Wehrman, Virginia Pickens, Clara Louise Sibilia, Alberta Mary Mahan Katrina Fertig. Helen Carson and Juanita Maria Bivins. The ballroom looked particularly attractive, decorated with palms and great clusters of green ferns and purple flowers. The stage was cozily arranged with soft cushions and divans, and Hart's orchestra played the dance music. A large number of out-of-town visitors were among the guests. The latter included Mr. and | decorations of June flowers, Assisting in the Mrs. Callaway, of Tuscaloosa, Ala.; Miss Haute; Mr. Russell Edwards, of Lafayette; of honor, and lifting the roses, disclosed the Mr. Stubbins and Mr. Dixon, of Mattoon, Ill.; Mrs. Sawyer, of Tuscaloosa, and Mrs. Sibilia, of Port Huron, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher S. Hines entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening at a handsomely-appointed dinner daughter, Miss Marie Hines, and Mr. bride, pronounced the ceremony, which was | Charles G. Konter, of Naples, Italy, who were married Friday afternoon, Dinner was served in the west dining room, where the table was arranged in heart shape. Alexander De Motte played the "Lohen- The decorations were exceptionally attract-grin" wedding march. The bride was bewas a large wedding bell of pink, white and green flowers and vines. From the pink flower clapper were ribbons of three colors which extended to the guests' places. nia. On their return they will reside at The name cards were clever conceits, bepriate to the occasion. At each place were bonbon holders in the form of odd little wine glasses which were brought from Germany. The center of the table was covered with a round mound of pink peonies surrounded by a wreath of smilax. The corners of the room were banked with palms. The company entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hines included Miss Hines, Mr. Konter, Miss Louise Young of New York, Miss Edna Stevenson, Miss Agnes Brown, his violin, who played a song composed by and Miss Stella Cale; Mr. and Mrs. How-Mrs. Booth Tarkington. The hostess also ard Cale, Mrs. John Randolph Brown, Mr. sang one of Mrs. Tarkington's songs. Miss and Mrs. W. E. Stevenson, Mrs. L. S.

One of the pretty home weddings of the season was that which was solemnized at and Miss Belle Dean. The house was pret- 8:30 o'clock last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilford Vestal, on Union street. The bride was Mrs. Vestal's sister. Miss Florence Alma Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tucker, of Lafayette, and the bridegroom was Mr. William C. Haugh, of this city. The house was prettily decorated with palms and smilax, a mass of palms and long stemmed ground for the wedding party. An orcheseach meeting prints and photographs have tra played the wedding music, rendering been exhibited to illustrate the special the "Intermezzo" from "Cavalleria Rustidaintily gowned in white silk mull, fashloned with shirrings and lace. She wore a veil fastened with a tulle aigrette and carried a shower of white sweet peas. After the ceremony a buffet supper was served, Stanbery, Mrs. Charles Emery, Mrs. S. E. the dining room having a pyramid of palms Perkins, jr., Mrs. Robert Bennett, Mrs. for its center. Mr. and Mrs. Vestal were assisted in their hospitalities by Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Conradt, Mr. Charles Haugh, Miss Josephine Vestal, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Spurrier and J. G. Sanborn. A number of friends from out of town were present, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Conradt, of Tiffin, O.; Miss Dora Krauss, of Peru; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Conradt, of Kokomo; Mr. Gray Potter, of Greencastle; Miss Uppington, of Lexingon, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Tucker, of Martinsville; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pritchard of West Newton. Mr. and Mrs. Hough went at once to their new home, No. 1218 East Washington street, where they will receive their friends after July 15.

XXX

One of the most elaborate and beautiful weddings of the season was that which took place at 6 o'clock yesterday evening at the handsome country home of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher S. Hines, near Millersville. The bride was their daughter, Miss Marie Hines, and the bridegroom Mr. Charles G. Konter, an American exporter of Naples, Italy. The wedding was a sunset wedding and the decorations throughout the spacious house were entirely in pink and green, the color tones being carried out with a profusion of green vines and palms and quantities of pink flowers. The ceremony room was arranged in the form of a chapel, the idea being carried out with the altar, cross and tall Greek candles. The windows were hung with strands o smilax, and the walls were massed with green foliage interset with vases of pink roses. The two ribbon bearers, Misses Stella Cale and Agnes Brown, led the bridal procession, holding the white satin ribbons for the party to pass. Both little girls were gowned in quaint low-necked frocks of white brocaded chiffon, with their hair done high in old-fashioned Miss Edna Stevenson was first bridesmaid and Miss Louise Young, of New York, the second, who walked before the bride. The latter entered on the arm of her father, and they were met at the altar by Mr. Konter, his best man, Mr. Jesse Fletcher, and Bishop James Marshall Francis, who pronounced the service. An orchestra played the wedding music, rendering the wedding march from "Lohenand the "Intermezzo" from "Cavalleria Rusticana" during the ceremony The bride was exquisitely gowned in an imported robe of point d'esprit and pearls. The gown was fashioned with a sheer lace yoke, and a veil was worn, fastened with a brooch of pearls. The bride also wore a handsome necklace of pearls, the gift of her father, and carried a shower of lilles of the valley. The two bridesmaids looked charming in gowns of lace fashioned with decollete bodices over green silk. Each maid carried a bouquet of pink roses. Over one hundred guests from Indianapo lis attended the wedding, and Mr. and Mrs. Hines were assisted in their hospitalities by the Fletcher relatives and a few other friends. Mrs. Hines wore a black lace gown over white chiffon, with diamonds. A wedding supper was served after the ceremony, the guests being seated at small tables arranged on the lawn, which was brilliantly illuminated with electric lights | go to Everett, Pa., for a visit. Japanese lanterns. The wedding of Miss Hines and Mr. Konter was celebrated on the anniversary of the wedding day of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Konter will remain at Millersville for a week, after which they will go to Vermont for a short visit with relatives, and will sail June 27 for their future home in Naples, Italy, Among those who came from out of town for the wedding were Mrs. Healy, of Columbus, O., Mrs. C. C. Hines, of New York, and Miss Flora Cronise, of Toledo, Saturday's Companies.

Miss Ethel Havens entertained a few friends with a brake ride and supper last night in honor of her visitors, Miss Gardenhire and Miss Key, of Chattanooga.

The Magazine Club had its annual outing vesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. a number of guests present with the club | O. L. Huey, in Woodruff Place. The house | by a group of songs by Miss Emma Atkins. was prettily decorated with flowers and during the afternoon there was a musical

> The monthly card party of the German House was held yesterday afternoon. The hostesses were Mrs. David Kahn, Mrs. S. Kiser, assisted by Mrs. Leopold Levy, Peery. Mrs. W. E. Maxwell, Mrs. Bert Boyd, Mrs. Miss Elizabeth Baker will be graduated K. Klein, Mrs. E. H. Habig and Mrs. John from Vassar College June 10. She will at-

Mrs. Frank Flanner entertained the members of the Sketching Club informally yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the last meeting of the season. During the afternoon Miss Sara Mayo exhibited a number Henry Lane Bruner, Louis Burckhardt, A. of interesting pictures sent by her sister, Dietrichs, James Eaglesfield, Frank M. Miss Lucy Mayo, who is now in Japan.

> Mrs. George H. Batchelor was the hostess for a delightful luncheon yesterday, entertaining a party of Greensburg friends. The company included Miss Mary and Miss Clara Ardery, Miss Edna, Miss Anna and Miss Mary Stewart, Mrs. S. A. Bonner, Mrs. E. E. Roland, Mrs. Charles Woodfield, Mrs. Charles Zoller, Mrs. H. M. Thomson, Mrs. Charles D. Haas, Mrs. Daniel R. Perry and Mrs. William Erdman.

A number of invited guests had the privilege of listening to a most delightful musical programme given yesterday afternoon at the Propylacum by Mr. Cecil Fanning, of Columbus, O., who is a pupil of Mr. Harry B. Turpin, who is spending a month in this city. Mr. Fanning is a young man of twenty years of age and possesses a baritone voice of exquisite quality. He was heard to advantage yesterday afternoon in a varied programme which received numerous encores from the audience.

A pretty card company was given yester-Mrs. Andrew Young, of New York. The several rooms were attractively arranged with entertainment of the guests were Mrs. Rob-Bivins, of Shelbyville; Miss Gladys Wright, ert J. Elliott, Mrs. A. P. Craft, Mrs. F. W. High School Alumnee Association will of Grand Rapids; Miss Wheeler, of Terre Ranney, Mrs. Willard Carey, Mrs. William Miss Fox, Miss Johnson and Miss Louise Young of New York. Among the guets were Mrs. Eugene Fletcher of Anderson and Mrs. F. A. Bosler, of Connersville.

Personal and Social Notes.

Mrs. D. S. Hill has gone to Chicago to make a short visit with friends. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. G. Bals left last week to spend the summer at Elkhart, Wis. The Calanthia Club will give its first dance at Broad Ripple Tuesday evening. Mrs. John T. Barnett has returned from a visit of several weeks in Cleveland, O. Mrs. Oliver P. Morton and Mrs. Dill will leave to-morrow to visit friends in St. Louis. Miss Ellen Gibson, of Richmond, Va., will arrive to-morrow to visit Miss Anna Coch-

Miss Greer, of Pittsburg, will arrive tomorrow to visit Miss Suemma-Vajen Cole-Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Smith will leave early in July to spend the summer in Canada Mr. John R. Carr, superintendent of the Greenwood schools, sailed for Europe yes-

The Lazarre Club has reorganized and will dance at Broad Rippie Wednesday The St. Mary's of the Woods Club will meet Thursday with Miss Conlen, at 1018 Mrs. Walter L. Ballenger will go to Fort Wayne this week to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wisehart. Mrs. James Coppinger Cotter will leave visit with relatives. Mrs. Hugh H. Jameson has returned to Lafayette, after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kurtz. The Keramic Club has postponed its picnic until a week from to-morrow, instead of to-morrow, as planned. The marriage of Gertrude Kribs, of this city, and Frank X. Miller, of Cicere, Ind., will take place this month.

Miss Blanche Kercheval has returned from a two months' visit to her sister, Mrs. L. L. Ray, in St. Louis. E. Raymond Compton, of spending two weeks in town with brother, Arthur B. Compton. On Tuesday evening Miss Faith Kern will entertain a small company in honor of Misses Lena and Nelle McDowell. Miss Jessie D. Lewis will leave the last of the month for New York, where she will remain to study with Oscar Saenger. The Chapel Club will be entertained by Mrs. Frank J. Noll at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the St. Joseph Hall. Mrs. Charles E. Kregelo will return this week from a visit with her daughter, Mrs.

Harry H. Beckweth, in Ravenna, O. Wilmer and Jack Stuckenberg, of Frankfort, Mich., will arrive this week to visit Mr. Charles Stone on College avenue. Louis Conde has returned from Princeton, accompanied by Chauncey Conger, of Carmi, Ill., who will remain a week with Miss Mary Foster returned yesterday to her home in Crawfordsville after spending several weeks with Miss Edna Steven-Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Fitch and family will remove about the middle of the month to their country home for permanent resi-Mrs. Thomas Downard and daughter, of Bement, Ill., was the guest of honor at a luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Frank S.

Mrs. Thomas J. Villers, who has been spending several weeks with relatives in Marietta, O., will return to her home next Thursday. Mrs. W. A. Morris and Miss Ada Philips of Frankfort, who have been visiting Mrs.

J. E. Scroddy, on Ruckle street, have returned home Mr. Stewart S. Kurtz, who visited hi brother, Mr. William E. Kurtz, and Mrs. Kurtz last week, has returned to his home in Canton, O.

Miss Mildred Thompson arrived yesterday from Louisville to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly Thompson at the Cambridge. Miss Eleanor D. Kirby will leave tomorrow for New Providence, Ia., to attend the wedding of her niece and visit her sister for a month. Mrs. Harriet Augusta Prunk is a delegate to the national convention of elocutionists which will be held in Denver the last of the month. Miss Eleanor Lemcke has returned from Miss Chamberlair.'s school in Boston, ac-who will visit her. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris, of Chicago, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Lemmon last week, en route to New York and Atlantic City. Mrs. Charles L. Farrell will leave morrow for her home in Chicago after companied by Miss Irving, of Wyoming, spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. E. N. Richards. Mrs. Higbee and Mrs. Harry Higbee, of Chicago, arrived yesterday to visit the latter's mother, Mrs. W. A. Kenworthy, on West Vermont street.

Mrs. Robert Pearl, of Zanesville, O., will arrive this week to visit her aunt. Mrs. Chapman Williams, Mrs. Pearl was formerly Miss Katherine Keene. Mrs. Edward A. Austin left yesterday for New York city to remain indefinitely with her son, Mr. J. L. Austin. Later she will annual social and picnic next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis B. Misses Lena and Nelle McDowell, of Oolitic, the latter who has been in school at Valparaiso, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. S.

J. Kern. No. 33 West Vermont street. Mrs. Louise Cortelyou returned yesterday to her home in Lewisville, Ind., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Cortelyou, who will visit her for a short time. Lieut, Austin Parker, stationed at Fort Assiniboine, Mont., will arrive the first of the week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Justis Parker, on Central avenue, Miss Amber Ensley will return June 20 from the New England Conservatory at Boston, Mass. Miss Ensley has completed the forty weeks' course in thirty weeks. The last meeting of the Fortnightly Club for the season will be held Tuesday. A paper by Miss Fredonia Allen will be followed Mrs. W. N. Harding has gone to attend the commencement of Williams College, where she will join her son, Mr. Will Harding, jr., and spend a short time in the East Mrs. E. J. Heeb and her sister, Mrs. Greene, of Cincinnati, have gone to Greensburg to spend several weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B.

tend the closing exercises at Harvard and visit in Boston and New Haven before re-Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rink will leave this evening for a ten days' trip to New York and Philadelphia. On their return they leave for their summer home as Wequetonsing. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Manlove announce the engagement of their only daughter, Vie Rea, and O. Stanley Murphy, of Chicago. The medding will take place in ment. Noble P. Howard, jr., another son, will be graduated. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kleinsmith announce the engagement of their daughter. Miss Minnie Elizabeth Kleinsmith, and Mr. David Harrison Hutchinson. The wedding

Mrs. Elizabeth Howard, of Greenfield and son Ryon have gone to Orchard Lake

Military Academy to attend commence-will occur June 24. Mrs. Walter Bassett has gone to Ann Arbor to attend the commencement of the University of Michigan. Her daughter, Miss Jessie Bassett, will be graduated from the law department.

Lieutenant Austin Parker, who has been located at Fort Assinaboine, will arrive early this week to spend two months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Parker, Mrs. R. L. Bonsteel and little son, of Corry, Pa., arrived yesterday from Vevay to join Mr. Bonsteel in this city, and for the present they will be at Mrs. D. K. Carver's, on Downey avenue, Irvington. Mr. and Mrs. George P. Brown, of Bloomington. Ill., are visiting the family of Mr. Charles Carroll Brown, of No. 405 East Twentieth street, where they will be at home to their friends to-morrow evening. The annual meeting of the Shortridge held at the hall, next Friday evening, at Elder, Miss Agnes Hutton, Miss Thomas, 8 o'clock. A musical and literary programme will be given, followed by dancing. Dorsey, Miss Jeanette Haugh, of Anderson, will arrive this week to visit Miss Helen Brown reports. "Magazine Verse," Mrs. Henry J. on Broadway and attend the commencement exercises of Shortridge High School and a number of the commencement par-

> Mr. and Mrs. William O. Everett and Harry and Leo Everett will go to Shelbyville Wednesday to attend the marriage L. D. Chandler. of Miss Minnie Eschmeyer and Joseph Roland Mardis, which will occur that evening. Mr. Robert Mason Geiger, of Atlanta, Ga., has issued announcements of the marriage of his daughter Margaret Campbell and Mr. John Covington Knapp, which took place at the Grace Church Chantry, New York, on June 4. Mrs. George W. Stout, who left Friday for Mountain Seminary, Pa., to attend the commencement exercises, will return on Thursday, accompanied by her daughter Josephine, who will be graduated this week from that institution. The annual children's summer festival will be observed at the German Park Sunday afternoon, June 14. In case of bad weather the festival will be postponed two weeks. Riverside Park cars pass the taine, O., are the guests of their mother, north entrance of the German Park. Invitations have been received in the city from Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Howe for the marriage of their daughter Agnes and Mr. Frederick Bailey Jones

Wednesday evening June 24, at 6 o'clock at the Grace Episcopal Church, Muncie. Mrs. May Wright Sewall has issued invitations to the resident alumnae of the Girls' Classical School for a tea from 4 to 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to christen Thursday for St. Louis to make a short | the tea service and loving cup presented to her by the association and senior class. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eitel, Mr. Edmund Eitel and the officers of the class of '03 of Shortridge High School will give a reception to-morrow afternoon, from 3 to 6 o'clock, for the seniors and faculty of the on North Meridian street.

Mrs. John V. Dittemore and little daughter Louise, of Effingham, Ill., will arrive this week to join Mrs. Harriet A. Bingham and go with her to Dayton, O., to visit relatives for ten days, after which they

The June party of the Maennerchor Ladies' Society will be given next Friday afternoon. Section 8 is in charge, with Mrs. Eugene Dollmetsch chairman, assisted by Miss Lena Fertig, Mrs. George Borst, Miss Tillie Schmid, Miss Gertrude Humann and Miss Katrina Fertig.

Miss Harriet M. Fitch will give a reception Monday evening, June 15, in honor of the Daughters of the Revolution and in celebration of Flag day. Captain Wallace Foster will give an address and display his collection of flags. A snort musical programme has also been arranged for the

The Alliance Francaise has elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Samuel E. Morss; vice president, Miss Emily Morss; vice president, Fletcher; secretary, Mr. Edward Du Bois; treasurer, Miss Mary Colgan; assistant secretary, Miss Niblack; board of directors, Mrs. May Wright Sewall, Mrs. Clarence A. Kenyon, Mrs. George B. Gaston, Mrs. Josephine Weigeldt, Mr. Faille.

Mrs. Olivia Sanger Hall, the dramatic reader who has been doing considerable work in this city during the month of May, left yesterday for Chicago, en route to Denver where she is on the programme for the National Association of Elocutionists which will be held there the last of the month. Mrs. Hall will afterwards go to Nebraska to do Cautauqua work and will return to the city the last of July before going to Winona to fill an engage-TALBOTT-TONNER. The marriage of Mr. Henry Talbott, of this city, and Miss Ida Glenn Tonner, daughter of Mr. A. Clarke Tonner, of Washington, D. C., took place in that city at noon yesterday. The ceremony was pronounced at the home of the bride's father at 1916 Sixteenth street, by the Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, of St. Margaret's Church, and was witnessed by the immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom. There were no attendants and a wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony. The bride was born in Canton, O., but has ived in Washington a number of years, where her father has filled a number of important official positions. She was a favorite of the late President McKinley, and among the wedding gifts was that from Mrs. McKinley, a photograph of the late President, framed in gold. Mr. Frank M. Talbott, of this city, attended the wedding of his brother. Mr. Talbott will bring his bride to Indianapolis for residence.

The Children's Garden Party. The garden party for children, which the Flower Mission postponed from last Friday, will be given next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John T. Brush, on East Washington street. All the entertainments will be given as planned. Miss Lida Niblack will have charge of the pony carts and automobiles, which have been donated for the day by Mrs. Henry Waite Buttolph. Mrs. Pierre Gray, Miss Josephine Morss, Miss Gladys Wynn, Mr. H. P. Wasson, Mr. Fred M. Ayres, Mr. Russell Fortune Miss Helen Hearsey, Austin Brown, Raiph Dildag, Joseph Clune, Louise McGowan, Martha McCulloch and Mary Williams. Lemonade will be sold by Mrs. J. W. Beck. Mrs. Lavalette Dickey, Mrs. Wilbur W. Dark, Miss Valette Miller, Miss May Shipp, Miss Orrin Woollen, Miss Ethel Cleland, Miss Anna Spann, Miss Anna Louise Beck, Miss Florence Coffin and the Misses Spann will keep the gate; balloons, Mrs. A. L. Drum and Miss Mary Colgan; candy, Mrs. J. H. Lowes, Mrs. V. K. Hendricks, Mrs. J. H. Byers, Mrs. Benjamin Hitz, Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. Thomas G. Barry, Miss Louise Lilly, Miss Ketcham, Miss Florence Jones, Miss Beatrice Byers, Miss Kurtz and Mrs. Buttolph; ice cream. Mrs. Frank Ritchie and Mrs. McPherson. assisted by Mrs. Benjamin Hitz, Mrs. J. K Sharpe, Mrs. Charles Wayne, Mrs. H. H. Friedley, Mrs. Eldridge M. Shanklin, Miss. Flora Ketcham, Miss Gertrude Taggart, Miss Lillian Taggart, Miss Bessie Miller. Miss Agnes Ritchie and Miss Florence Cothrell; music, by the Newsboys' Band, and there will be a Punch and Judy show in charge of Mr. Harry Porter. There will be no charge of admission for the children under fourteen years of age. The friends or relatives accompanying them, however, will pay 15 cents.

Club Programmes.

Friday Afternoon Club-June 12. Social. Ladies' Literary Union-June 10. Annual Keramic Club-Outing postponed until Century Club-June 9. Dinner at the Coun-Veronica Club-June 11. Special meeting with Mrs. Walter Fitch. Proctor Reading Circle-June 9. Outing at Broad Ripple, with husbands of the members as guests. Mrs. Lew Wallace, jr. "Things Which Store.

Have Been Forgotten," by Mrs. W. Pratt; "The Golden Gate," by Mrs. K. L.

Catherine Merrill Club-June 13. Annual Brandon; conversation by the club Culture Club-June 9. With Mrs. George McCammon, 836 North New Jersey street. "Oliver Wendell Holmes," by Mrs. J. M. Wooling; "Holmes as a Poet," by Mrs. Charles Remy; "Elsie Venner," by Mrs. J.

Brightwood.

The ladies of the Congregational Church net at the home of Mrs. Meadows Friday afternoon....Mrs. Fred Miller and daughter Garnett, of Wabash, Ind., are the guests of Mrs. Lucinda Hundley....Mrs. Clarence Miles will entertain the Labracio Club Wednesday evening at her home, on St. Clair street ... Mr. C. P. Hughes, of St. Louis, is visiting his parents ... Mr. and Mrs. Hodson have returned from a visit in Cambridge City Miss Elizabeth Shirk, of Greensburg, who has been visiting her aunt. Mrs. G. Gilchrist, has returned to her home. ... The Misses Elizabeth Fullenwider, Iva Blue and Kathryn Marshall visited the Misses Duncan, of Greenfield, Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murphy, of Bellefon-Mrs. Murphy....Mrs. W. B. Collins and wife, of Detroit, Mich., are the guests of the Rev.

J. W. Collins Mr. G. Leftwich is visiting in Greenville, Dark county Miss Iva Blue, of Montezuma, is the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Fullenwider Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rash, of Fortville, are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. E. B. Hanna....Mr. Earl Fullenwider, of Denver, Col., is visiting his parents....Dr. and Mrs. B. A. Brown have returned from St. Louis, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Belle Haufmann. ... Mr. T. Murry, of Plainville, Ia., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, has returned home The Epworth League of the M. E. Church held a social and business meeting in the church parlors Tuesday evening. Reports from the convention held in Irvington were read by the delegates, school, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eitel, Misses Nell Saylor, Chloe Williams and Mr. Edgar Brown....The Knights and Ladies of Honor held a musical and literary entertainment in the hall Thursday evening. The following persons took part during the evening: Mr. Lester Brown, pianist; Hoosler City Quartet; Mr. Harry Porter, monowill go to Rye Beach, New Hampshire, to logist; the Mansfield Sisters Quartet and miss Mary Traub, soloist. Little Miss Mildred Gray also gave a recitation. After a very enjoyable evening refreshments and dancing followed.

Clermont.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meyers visited in Haughville Sunday Mr. Carl Miller went to Liberty Sunday Mrs. David Convin visited Mrs. Ed Brown in Brownslurg last week Roy Convin was the guest of friends in Irvington the latter part of the week Mr. Grant Long went to Olinville last night to attend a dance given by Mr. Henry Leutz Mrs. Delores Patty entertained the Ladies' Aid Society Thursday afternoon....Mrs. Daisy Blackwell, of Indianapolis, visited Mrs. Clay Kulley Monday James Allen, of Chicago, visited here Friday.

Flackville.

Miss Leland Pitman and brother Ernest, of Rushville, are the guests of Miss Katherine Todd....Mrs. John Harding entertained a number of friends at her home Wednesday evening with a handkerchief bazaar Mr. Charles Howard, of Chicago, has returned home to remain during the summer Mr. Clyde Wilkins left last week for Peoria, Ill., where he will remain severa months with friends ... Mrs. Martha Todd has returned from a visit to Greenwood Mrs. Clara Moore was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Joe Fellenzer, Wednesday ... Miss Gertrude Smith will go to Plainfield this week to be the guest of Mrs. Molly Simmins ... Mr. and Mrs. William Pitman will come this week to visit relatives for a few days Mr. Chris. Miller entertained a number of friends from Marlon Park with a picnic Wednesday afternoon....Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Bertha Johnson and Mr. Will Kirtpatric, which will take place Wednesday evening June 18 Mrs. J. P. Perkins will entertain with a tea Thursday evening for a number of friends Mr. Otha Richardson visited his sister in Zionsville last week ... Mrs. Maggie McKee, of North Bethel, is the guest of Mrs. Martha Todd.

Franklin.

Mrs. J. B. Payne is visiting relatives at Greensburg Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Miller are visiting their daughter, Mrs. James Loller, at Richmond ... Mrs. Merritt Overstreet, of Louisville, Ky., is visiting relatives here A. D. House will make Columbus his future home The musical class of Miss Elma Inglemann here gave a recital Tuesday evening. Miss Inglemann was assisted by Miss Ruby Lane, Nathan Davis and Edwin Inglemann of Indianapolis Mrs. Roy Lane, of Indianapolis, visited friends here last week Mrs. Charlotte Clark, of Indianapolis, is visiting E. H. Pottinger and family Miss Harma Middleton has returned from Columbia University, New York Miss Ella Beall, of Indianapolis, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Byfield....Prof. Paul Monroe, of New York, visited his mother, Mrs. Juliet Monroe, last week Miss Florence Province has returned from a visit with friends at Bloomington Miss Dunlap was the guest of Miss Grubbs at Martinsville last week. Bertha La Grange entertained Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Theta Lynn, of Long Beach, Cal.... Mrs. Carl Payne visited relatives at Edinburg last week Miss Nora Winchester is visiting at Lebanon ... Miss Edith Daughters, of Moore's Hill, is the guest of Miss Cora Voyles Mrs. E. E. Forsythe and son Harold, of visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fisher.

Miss Florence Provence. Haughville.

Miss Grace Aldrich, of Waverly, is visiting

Mrs. Charles Conners, of Rushville, is visiting Mrs. Leonard Williamson of King avenue.... A class of fifty children wil make their first communion Anthony's Church at 8 o'clock. At o'clock the Right Rev. Bishop Chatard will administer confirmation ... Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver, of Terre Haute, will spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chandler, of King avenue....The June day exercises of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at the church on June 14 at 7 p. m Mrs. Dowers and daughter, of Darlington, are visiting Mrs. Orin Mote on Ketcham street ... Mr. and Mrs. Shirley will spend to-day with Miss Hazel Orms, of Southport....Mrs. Mary Rybolt entertained the King-avenue Missionary Society last Thursday afternoon at her home The Original Lazarre will give their first summer party at Broad Ripple Friday, June 12....Mrs. T. W. Slater, of Dayton, O., was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clem Von Burg, last week ... Misses Arda and Maymie Lewis will entertain a number of (CONTINUED ON PAGE 7, PART 2.)

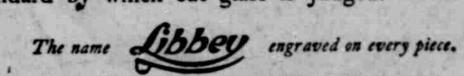

Visitors to Indianapolis

Who are interested in photography are especially welcome to our studio this week. We are showing something particularly fine in our new photos. STEWART M. POUDER. Over the Teacups Club-June 12. With 229 Massachusetts avenue, Studio and Art

Every Piece a Work of Art

The clearness, brilliance, perfection of cutting and the beauty of its exclusive design has made LIBBEY the standard by which cut glass is judged.

Chas. Mayer @ Co., 29-31 West Washington St.